Verification of Disability for Housing Purposes

WHY GET A VERIFICATION OF DISABILITY?

Many affordable housing options are reserved for people who are elderly or disabled. These apartments are usually subsidized by the federal government, and residents pay approximately 30% of their monthly income for rent and utilities. All of the subsidized apartments for seniors and people with disabilities in Portland have waiting lists of approximately 1-4 years, depending on the specific building.

People who are 62 or over, or younger than 62 and receiving disability income from Social Security or the Veteran's Administration, qualify to apply for these properties. However, if you are under 62 and disabled but not yet receiving disability benefits, you can still qualify to apply for subsidized housing by having your health provider sign a Verification of Disability (VOD) form. The VOD states that you have a physical, mental, or emotional impairment that is expected to be long-term and makes it difficult to live independently without more suitable housing conditions.

HOW TO GET A VERIFICATION OF DISABILITY

The following health providers are qualified to sign a VOD:

- Physician's Assistant
- Medical Doctor
- Family Nurse Practitioner
- Certified Nursing Specialist
- Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner
- Licensed Nurse Practitioner
- Licensed Clinical Social Worker
- Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine
- Doctor of Chiropractic Medicine
- Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor Level 3

The signed VOD form works for housing purposes only. It will not help you obtain disability benefits from Social Security, the Veteran's Administration, or any other provider. Ask your doctor to sign the VOD before you begin applying for any subsidized housing designated for people with disabilities. Then submit a copy of your signed VOD with each application for subsidized housing. Keep the original with your important documents. A Verification of Disability form your medical provider can complete is attached.
